Sixth Graders Study Development of Motion Pictures

Students and teachers in the Horace Mann Intermediate Department work together to achieve effective learning. Visual aids such as the "Our America" picture story and an actual movie projector help to make a study of the development of motion pictures more interesting to these sixth graders. Foreground, Larry Gray, Sandra Yeo, Rebecca Bell, Robert Meeker; second row, Hollis White, Roger Dale Blackwell, Etta Mae Dougan, Cynthia Ware; third row, Jerry Robey, John Williams, Susan Wilbur, Kay Van Velson, Charla Bogg; standing, Mrs. Avis Graham, supervising teacher, Gene Cooper, Bob Willis, Mr. Arlmas Lovan, student teacher.

Intermediate Department Stresses Good School Environment for Student Teachers and Pupils

By Roberta Cronkrite
Uppermost in the work of the Intermediate Department of the Horace Mann Elementary School is the providing of the best possible school environment in which students may do their teaching. It is for this reason that the department and the school exist and for this reason that the state appropriates the funds which maintain the school.

"In making this provision," states Miss Mary E. Keith, intermediate supervisor, "we have found that a superior learning environment for the children is created at the same time. When teachers are well-trained, it follows naturally that the children will be well-taught."

Supervising Teachers Guide
Supervising teachers in each grade furnish expert guidance as a result of their years of practical teaching experience and excellent personal qualifications, as well as the usual qualification of a master's degree.

Supervising teachers in the intermediate area are Mrs. Esther Knittel, fourth grade, Miss Ann Gorsuch, fifth grade, and Mrs. Avis Graham, sixth grade. Miss Ruth Miller supervises the teaching of music; Mr. Ellery Gibson supervises the teaching of art, beginning with the fifth grade, and is available as a consultant in the lower grades.

Demonstration Teaching Is First
At first, student teachers observe the demonstration teaching provided by their supervising teachers. As they learn procedures, they are gradually led into full charge of subject matter teaching, still under the guidance of the supervising teacher. This gradual process under which student teachers assume teaching responsibility helps to give them confidence, skill, and competence. Adapting the work and practices of the various age levels to child needs and helping the student teachers to understand the whole program is the basic teacher-education responsibility of the school. A total child development program is carried on through all grades of the elementary school. Parent education and participation are important parts of the program of the school. A Parent Teachers Association unit is maintained for these grades.

Horace Mann Has Departments
Horace Mann Elementary School, the second elementary school in the history of the College, established in 1927 its departmental form of organization (primary, intermediate, and upper grades) with the supervisor for each area responsible also for teaching methods classes. Miss Keith has been the intermediate supervisor since that time.

In the intervening time, growth along many lines has taken place. Housing was changed in 1939 from the west first-floor rooms of the Administration building to the Horace Mann building. Teachers and students enjoy and appreciate their excellent environment, but the creative atmosphere in which all age levels go about their living and learning is even more important.

Painting Class Holds Exhibit of Art Works
Members of Miss Olive DeLuce's painting class have placed some of their works on exhibit. Included are a snow scene and a still life by Marjorie Lewis, an oil painting of a copper bowl and green bottle done with a palette knife by Charlene Welsh, abstract designs by Melvin Hubbell, oil painting by Sharlis Wheeler, and water colors by Jacky Donaldson.

Demi-Tasse Group Will Give Three Miniature Dramas

Charles Avery, Jane Surrey, Lawrence Cregar, and Kathy Dugas, the Demi-Tasse Players, will present three one-act dramas on the stage of the College auditorium. February 20, at 10 a.m. The group will perform "Happiness, My Goal" by Norman Holland, "Catherine Parr" by Maurice Baring, and "Morality Play for the Leisured Class" by John Balderston.

Mr. Avery, the founder and director, studied dramatics at the University of Wisconsin. On leaving the university he took a position with the National Broadcasting Company in New York. His first Broadway appearance was in Maxwell Anderson's "Storm Operation." He has toured the South Pacific area with the USO and is known to summer theatre audiences in the East as both an actor and a director.

Miss Surrey is at present on leave from the television presentation of "The Egg and I." In addition to much television work, she has appeared on Broadway in several productions.

Miss Dugas has appeared in many stage productions and on radio and television shows, as well as in motion pictures. During the war she served with the WAVES.

Mr. Cregar was born in Ireland and served with the British Navy during the war. Upon his arrival in this country he was engaged for one of the leading roles in the film, "Johnny One-Eye."

ROBERTA IMPROVES
Roberta Steele, of St. Joseph, who was seriously injured in the explosion of Residence Hall last year, is out of the hospital and, according to available sources of information, is improving each day. After many operations and skin grafts "Bert" is on her way back to health.

Max Kinney, Medical Student, Visits Here
Max Kinney, of the class of 1951 and former student body president, visited the campus, January 28 and 29.

Max is attending medical school at the University of Missouri and had just completed the first semester.

He says he finds everything "very, very fine here." For those who are going to study medicine he says: "It's pretty rough; prepare for a real battle."

Public Library Patrons May Use NWMSC Library
Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College, has announced that the facilities of the College Library will be made available to patrons of the Maryville Public Library until the building, which was recently badly damaged by fire, is restored.

Upon presentation of an identification slip from Miss Grace Langman, public librarian, the citizens of the town will be allowed to use the library on the same basis as students.

Annual Year Book Dance Is Saturday Night

Attending Students Will Cast Votes for Tower King, Queen

Miss Mildred Maxon, Editor, Will Preside Over Regal Ceremony and Announce 1952 Dedication

Highlighting the Tower Dance to be held February 9 will be the coronation of the 1952 Tower King and Queen. The royal pair will be chosen by the student vote of those attending the affair. Voting will end at 10:30 p.m., and the coronation will take place during the intermission of 10:45 to 11:15 p.m.

Mildred Maxon, editor, will preside over the regal ceremony. Pages, Scotty Brown and Tommy Taylor, will unroll the white carpet leading to the twin thrones. The queen's bouquet will be carried by Ann Brandenburg. Next will come the bearers of the crowns, Steve Smay and Sharon Thompson.

Will Carry Trophies
Nancy Neece will carry the small golden trophies that are to be presented for the first time this year. Immediately preceding the king and queen, Ellen Grube will strew flower petals along the way. The four Tower attendants will follow the royal pair.

Dedication of the 1952 Tower will be announced during intermission.

Betty Reeves and Mary Jane Peck will introduce the guests to the receiving line which will include Mildred Maxon and Harold Groat, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Dean and Mrs. W. A. Brandenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ringold, and Joe Collier and Mary Belle Bast. Chapter-ones for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sandford, and Mr. and Mrs. Biffie Moore.

Special Guests
Special guests for the evening will include all past Tower Queens and Kings and all members of the faculty.

Betty Elisminger and Mary Ellen Daniels will serve at the refreshment table. Girls to replenish will be representatives of the social organizations on the campus.

Music for the evening will be supplied by Bill Baker and his orchestra.

Morning Assembly Will Be Recital

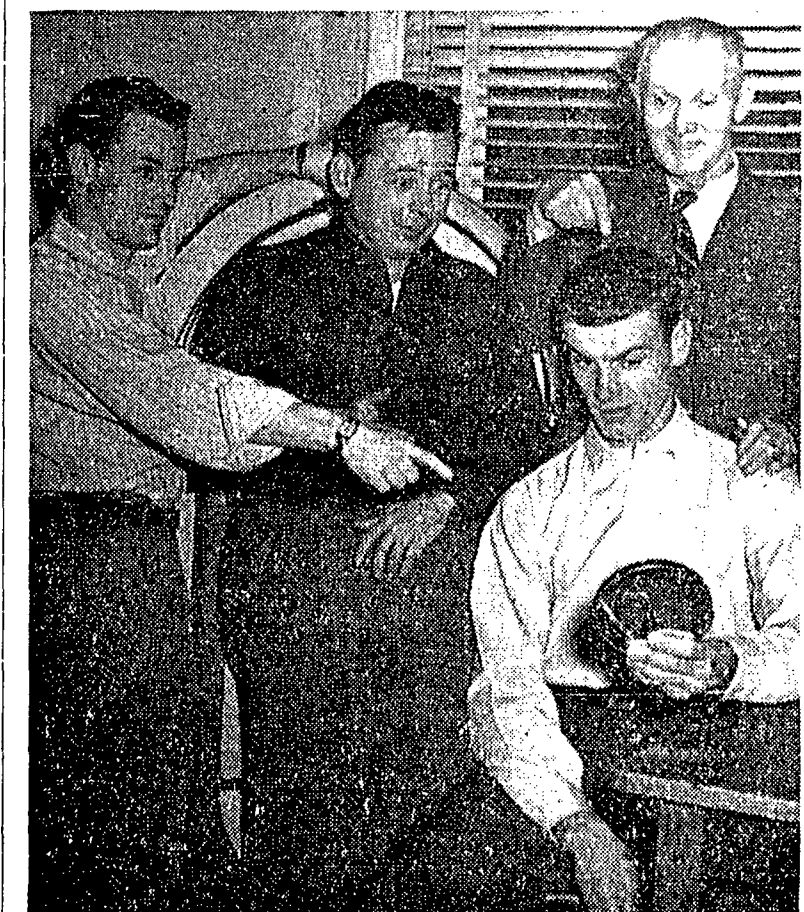

Members of the faculty of the music division will present a recital at the ten o'clock assembly today. The program will be as follows:

Phantasy Benjamin Dale (from Suite for Viola and Piano-Op. 1)
Mr. Donald Sandford, Violist
Mrs. Donald Sandford, Pianist
Three Shakespeare Songs (sung without pause) Quilter
Come Away Death

Mr. Kenneth Bird, Pianist.

NOTICE

Pre-registration is being held through this week. Students still have three days to plan schedules for the spring quarter. All seniors expecting to graduate at the end of the spring quarter must make application for graduation on the day of registration or the day following.

"Is It True What They Say, Fellows?"

"Mirror, mirror, who is the ugliest of all," is a question which will not be answered by the mirror, but rather by the entire student body in a campaign for Ugly Man. Proceeds of this contest go to the March of Dimes, otherwise there is no serious reflection upon the selection of candidates. Left to right are Harry Yungshlager, Bill Hull, and Mr. John Wolfe. Seated is George Coulter.

Students Have Opportunity to Select Ugliest Man on Campus

Proceeds Go to March of Dimes; All Candidates Boast Best Chance; Decision Will Be Difficult

The candidates in the annual ugly man contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega for the March of Dimes are Mr. John Wolfe, manager of the College Book Store; Harry Yungshlager of the Phi Sigma; George Coulter of the Sig Taus; and Bill Hull of the Independent Club.

Jars with the names of the candidates will be placed in front of rooms 113-114, and at the end of two weeks the man with the most money in his jar will be declared the ugliest man on the campus and will receive a key for his watch chain.

All Boast About Qualifications
All the contestants boast qualifications necessary to give them a walk-away with flying colors in the ensuing contest.

King and Queen Candidates Review

Candidates for Tower King and Queen scan previous yearbooks as they themselves will soon conclude extensive campaigning for coveted regal positions. One King and one Queen will be selected by the students attending the Tower dance this Saturday night. In the front are Mary Pink and Louise Novinger. In the back row are Max Miller, John Yurchak, Joyce Bailey, and George Coulter.

Plan Now to See Bible Drama; Don't Take "Noah" for Answer

By Betty Elisminger
"See 'Noah'—if not for heaven's sake, for the sake of your theatre-going soul." Andre Obey's original dramatization of the Bible story of the Flood offers opportunities for brilliant acting plus settings and costumes which are features in themselves.

This fantasy, which is directed by Mr. Ralph E. Fulsom of the speech department, will be presented in the College auditorium February 18 and 19 at 8:15 p.m. Tickets will be 50 cents each for adults and children. Students may obtain admission with their activity cards.

At First, All's Well
Noah is seen as an elderly man filled with faith and worry. When the voyage begins, all is well. The three sons, the girls, Mama, and all the animals are happy and contented. But after a while doubting and boredom begin.

Near the end of the play virtually everyone turns against Noah and he is alone—save for God. It seems to Noah, abandoned on rocky Mt. Ararat, that perhaps God has not been sportsmanlike in His dealings. Reassurance comes with the rainbow.

Woltz Has Lead
Eddie Woltz, a junior from St. Joseph, has the choice role of Noah.

Mama is slightly younger than Noah and filled with doubt. She believes in Noah and in God but like all human beings her faith is severely shaken at times.

Marion "Pat" O'Neal will portray Mama. She is a senior from Tingley, Iowa.

Ham Is Troublemaker
The three boys, Shem (21), Ham (19), and Japhet (17) are healthy, outdoor boys. Ham is the troublemaker on the trip and the first one to question the plans of God and Noah.

Lynn Adams, a junior from Red Oak, Iowa, is taking the part of Ham. Max Dixon, a sophomore from Stanberry, will do Japhet, and Richard Jenkins, a sophomore from Cameron, will be Shem.

Neighbor Girls Make Voyage
Three beautiful, young neighbor girls, Ada, Sella, and Norma make the voyage with Noah and his family. Ada will be played by Melya Helts, a sophomore from Craig, Louise Novinger, a freshman from Gravit, Iowa, will be Sella. Portraying Norma will be Jacky Donaldson, a sophomore from Maryville.

The angry man, a sort of hunter with a savage face, accuses Noah of being crazy. It seems strange, indeed, to the people of that time for a man to build a boat in the middle of a forest during the dry season.

Donald French, a junior from Percival, Iowa, will be the Hunter. Animals Are Included
Probably the most unusual things to be seen on the stage will be the

Elaine Hunt Is March of Dimes Amateur First

Under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Maryville, the first March of Dimes Amateur Show was presented in the College auditorium last week.

Elaine Hunt, who sang "Can't Help Lovin' That Man," was the unanimous choice of the judges for first place. The triple trio from Horace Mann were the second prize winners and the Stephen Lamar family, Maryville, were third prize winners.

James Vann, Jimmy Cook, Lyle Martin, and Bill Hull were masters of ceremonies. Mrs. John Price, Mrs. Mary Ann Scott, Mr. Biffie Moore, and Mr. Ralph Yehle were judges.

Parents' Day Will Be Held In March

Parents' Day, an event sponsored annually by the College, will be held this year on Friday, March 21, with a program similar to an open house. Classes on that day will be shortened to half-hour periods so that students may act as guides to their parents in the afternoon. Registration of parents will begin at 1 p.m. and continue until 8 p.m.

Each department of the College will arrange exhibits which will be open from 1 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. In addition, several departments will present demonstrations at 1, 2, 3, and 4 p.m. Tea will also be served during the afternoon.

An assembly program which will conclude the day's events will be given in the auditorium at 8 p.m.

Members of the general planning committee are Dr. F. W. Grube, Mr. Kenneth Bird, Mrs. Marie Price Hull, Miss Doris Hysler, Mr. James Johnson, Miss Ruth M'ler, Mr. Ryland Milner, Mr. Irving Spigle.

Puppet Show Will Be Presented by Art Class

Miss Olive DeLuce's Fine Arts class will present a puppet show, "Hansel and Gretel," for the students of the Horace Mann Laboratory School and their guests.

Jane Costello is in charge of the unit. Working with her are Jim Totten, scenery; Sharlis Wheeler, story; Ted Baker, stage construction.

Records will furnish the music for the show. The puppets were made by members of the class.

Narayan Will Address Students On Monday in WSSF Assembly

Dynamic in public address, stimulating in conferences, personable in appearance, and deeply committed to the objectives of WSSF, Chetivur V. L. Narayan has what it takes to set any campus humming with excitement.

He will speak at the assembly next Monday for the World Student Service Fund. His coming here is a service of the campus committee.

Mr. Narayan was educated at Madras University (A. B.), Loyola (L. B.), and at Geneva's famous Institute of Higher International Studies. His thesis, "Analysis of the Principles of System of International Trusteeship in the Charter of the United Nations," not only won him his doctorate in political science, but was acclaimed for its brilliant grasp and able presentation of the subject.

In October, 1946, he served as a representative of the All India Students Congress, and during 1947 represented his country at ISS conference in Tübingen (Germany) and Combloux (France). In Geneva in 1950 he was the Indian delegate to the fourth session of the World Federation of the United Nations Association and later spent much time lecturing for this organization in summer assemblies.

His Mother Dies
Floyd Trumbo, freshman of the College, was called to his home in Winston because of the sudden death of his mother, January 10. Students attending the funeral were Mildred Maxon, Marce Dick, Dwayne Cox, Bob Kelley, and John Garner.

Mrs. Hochenauer Gets Student Union Ideas

Mrs. Hattie Hochenauer, dietitian at Residence Hall, represented the College at the Regional Conference of National Association of Student Unions in Lawrence, Kansas, January 25-26. Colleges and universities from Missouri, Kansas, and Nebraska were represented by both faculty members and students.

Administration and social problems of operating student unions was the main topic discussed. Mrs. Hochenauer received ideas for the new Student Union building nearing completion on the campus.

W. A. RICKENBRODE

Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode, who has worked in the business office since the summer of 1907, knows well the past happenings on the campus. The College has had only one president with whom Mr. Rickenbrode has not worked.

When Mr. Rickenbrode came to Maryville, school was held where the Light and Power Company is now located. Classes also met in the seminary building before the Administration building was completed. At that time, approximately four hundred students were enrolled in the College.

Had Full Program
After teaching two commerce classes at seven and eight o'clock in the morning, Mr. Rickenbrode assumed the combined duties of registrar, business manager, and purchasing agent.

Mr. Rickenbrode, who was born in a small town near Oil City, Pennsylvania, is the youngest of three children, all of whom were teachers. He moved to Avalon, Missouri, with his parents while he was still a small boy, attended the Avalon schools, and was graduated from Avalon College. After his graduation from business college in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mr. Rickenbrode taught in several schools in Pennsylvania and Missouri before coming to Maryville.

Enjoys Pen Art, Music, Gardening
Pen art, of which he has several pieces in his home, is one of Mr. Rickenbrode's specialties. Music has also been one of his hobbies. He played in a band when he was only twelve, sang in a quartet composed of professors while teaching at Trenton College, and led his church choir. Gardening is one of Mr. Rickenbrode's favorite past-times because it enables him to be outdoors.

Mr. and Mrs. Rickenbrode have traveled extensively, visiting Hawaii, South America, Mexico, and almost every section of the United States. In Mexico, they had the privilege of watching the famous bullfights. Viewed Scenic Spots With Friends
Instead of touring scenic spots with hired guides, the Rickenbrodes have usually visited personal friends who live in the country and who helped them with such problems as exchange of money.

They enjoy boat travel most, because of the friends which can be made on board. They advise young people to add as much traveling experience to their lives as possible and to study the places they visit.

STAND FOR THE FUTURE

Have you ever seriously considered education for international understanding? Right now, as in the past, international understanding is a significant need. But what can we do about it?

Since we are most concerned with our own immediate needs, including getting an education and getting through college, can we afford to spend any time considering students throughout the world who are striving for these same goals? Is it of any consequence to us how the leaders are developed in war torn countries over the world?

Should we stop to consider such questions, we might find some far too realistic answers. The destinies of foreign countries will be guided by the leaders being developed in the colleges and universities of those countries today. The part we play on these people in the continuance to think and act as leaders in a free society may well determine whether we will need to continue and increase our extensive military preparedness.

One of the most effective ways to help convince students in foreign countries of our hope for them is through the program of the World Student Service Fund. More than a decade of generous distribution of material relief to universities in war-devastated and needy areas has given W. S. S. F. significant channels.

But what are the objectives of the W. S. S. F. program?

They include the education of leadership in technically under-developed areas; the rehabilitation of students made refugees by the explosive tensions of our time in history; the improvement of libraries, laboratories and health services. More than the sum of each of its parts, the W. S. S. F. program is a token of the common identity of humanity based in the intellectual and moral solidarity of mankind.

BE FAIR

The Student Union lounge is for the use of the entire student body. Its primary purpose is to serve every one, not just a few, as comfortably as possible. Recently it has been discovered that some of the recreational equipment, as well as the furniture, is being abused.

Many of the all school dances are held in this room, a fact which means the shuffle board, pool tables, and ping pong tables have to be removed. Because removing is hard on this equipment, we find it necessary to take all but the ping pong tables out of the lounge. This act is necessary so that the other things may be repaired. They will be out of use until the new Student Union building is completed in the spring.

We feel that it is not necessary for faculty members to be in the lounge at all times to see that things are handled properly. There are college hired individuals who are in charge of this room. However, it is each student's responsibility to keep the lounge orderly. This includes leaving the furniture where it has been placed.

It is the hope of the Student Union Committee members that you will appreciate the improvised room and can then fully enjoy the new Student Union Building.

—The Student Union Committee

KNOW YOU ARE HELPING

Once again we have been asked to contribute to the March of Dimes. Where does the money go?

Money collected by the local chapter is divided evenly between the headquarters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the chapter.

The local chapter uses its half to pay for the care of local patients and, in case of an emergency, to supplement the national epidemic aid at national headquarters. National headquarters uses the remaining half for research and to assist chapters whose own funds have been depleted by the demands of an epidemic.

Give—give freely! Know that as you are giving your dimes, quarters, or dollars that you are helping some child walk again.

From The Air

by Stanley Halpern

Because of the graduation of Kossman, Forsler, and Nixon, yours truly is now in charge of the reporting of all the sundry incidents that go to make up the life of the airmen on the campus. I should appreciate it if anyone who has a particularly juicy bit of gossip would bring it over to Quad 4 and leave it there for me.

But now to the news: On the evening of January 26, the Air Force held its semi-formal dance in the Administration building.

We were particularly favored by having with us at the time the Air Inspectors from Ft. Francis E. Warren, who left talking with them not only a very favorable report but also a very warm feeling toward the school for the hospitality extended to them.

To those who attended, I need not tell the good time that was had, but those who did not attend missed a wonderful time. May I extend the appreciation of the airmen to the permanent party especially S. Sgt. Tabler and M. Sgt. Craft for the work they put in to make the dance a success. Also to Lt. Fajot for rolling up his sleeves and really leading the way in decorations we owe a debt of gratitude.

Moreover, in the field of sports the airmen have not been negligent. In the opening of the season, the Jets soared to a 49 to 32 victory over the instructors. High men for the Jets were Keepes with 9 points, Staton with 8, and Brandy and Whickard with 6. For the instructors, Iddings scored 15, and Fryor and Lyle, both 6.

Next time, let's try to get in some strictly local news. 'Til then your roving reporter will sign off.

Costumes Are Important
Although costuming will not be elaborate it is an important part of the play. Designs were drawn by the play production class. Miss Anita Rice of the home economics department and some members of her classes made many of the costumes.

While Noah will appear in a long, flowing robe, the boys will wear loin cloths. The girls will be dressed in floor-length sarongs. Mama wears a plain, dark dress.

The opening scene of the fantasy takes place in a clearing. A part of the ark occupies one side of the stage. Stylized trees and bushes complete the arrangement.

Scenes on Ark

Scenes two, three, and four take place aboard the ark. Nothing is visible but sky and sea, and sky and sky. Scene projectors, constructed by the play production class, will give the illusion of rain in these scenes.

Mt. Ararat is the setting for the last scene. The ark is on land once more and shrubbery and reeding clouds may be seen. In the final minutes of the play a rainbow (made possible by the scene projectors) will light the stage.

Play Has Simple Style

A large part of the play's success is due to the unaffected, simple manner of the writing. Although it was first written in French, Arthur Wilmut's translation into colloquial English is well suited to the play's needs.

Another interesting feature is the dances which will be directed by Miss Doris Hysler of the physical education department. Mr. Gilbert Whitney of the music department will have charge of the music. Miss Mary Schulte will play the organ accompaniment.

Build All Scenery

Besides making animal heads and two scene projectors, Mr. Fulson and his play production class are also building all the scenery including the ark, trees, bushes, rocks, clouds, and two spot lights working out the arrangement of lights, sound effects, and properties.

The cabin of the ark, is constructed on a wagon which allows it to be moved anywhere on the stage.

Students in the play production class are Lynn Adams, Homer Baxter, Bill Davis, Betty Elsminger, Curt Gaffney, William Hunter, Roy Nixon, and Charles Watson.

Homer Baxter will act as production manager. Betty Elsminger will have charge of sound effects.

Mr. Foster Is Elected

Mr. R. P. Foster, registrar, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Missouri Association of Registrars and Admission Officers at the state meeting held in Springfield, recently. While at the meeting Mr. Foster served on a panel on registration.

Under the supervision of Dr. Sterling Surrey, head of the business department, an assembly program has been planned by the business law class to be given near the end of the quarter. The program will be a mock trial which will include both audience and class participation.

Burney L. Dalland, Robert M. Montgomery, and Mary Catherine Needles have recently been passed by the Senate as persons eligible to have their names on the Service Honor Roll.

Do You "Noah" What It's All About?

Part of the cast of "Noah," by Andre Obey, are shown blocking the action for one scene of the play which will be presented in the College auditorium, February 18 and 19, at 8 p. m. Mr. Ralph Fulson, of the College speech department, will direct the production. Members of the cast shown are as follows: left to right, Donald French, the angry man; Eddie Woltz, Noah; Lynn Adams, Ham; Melva Helts, Ada; Louise Novinger, Sella; Pat O'Neal, Mrs. Noah.

Record-Breaking 186 Pints of Blood Donated to Red Cross by Air Force

A record-breaking 186 pints of blood was donated by airmen at Northwest Missouri State College Friday at the county's first bloodmobile visit. A new county high for the number of pints secured on a one-day visit was set by the airmen, according to Ted Baldwin, Red Cross blood donor chairman here.

Baldwin had high praise for the Air Force squadron for the way they turned out to give blood. He said the visit, which is the first to the county under the new defense program in Kansas City, was well organized.

The quota was surpassed by 36 pints and another group of airmen were standing-by to donate if needed. Lt. Thaddeus Wagner, commanding officer of the 3475th Air Force squadron, was the first to give blood. Mrs. Wagner also donated a pint of blood. Airmen who gave blood were awarded with Saturday off. This meant no Saturday inspection.

About 25 Maryville women volunteered their services for the day, assisting a staff of seven registered nurses and a doctor and supply man from the Kansas City center. Ten beds were set up in the basement of the Residence Hall annex in addition to a canteen and recovery sections. Another post was the medical history room.

Airmen assisted in the packing room, in loading and unloading the equipment and in keeping the men moving through the lines.

Of the 196 men who registered, only ten were rejected. Mrs. Naomi Gray said. The next visits to the county are set for April 23 and June 19.

Positions in Indian Schools Are Now Open

Positions for high school teachers in Indian schools are open. Applications are being accepted by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Beginning salaries are from $3410 to $4205 per year. Teachers in Indian school's associate constantly with Indians, and must have a full appreciation of the Indian viewpoint and Indian culture.

They are expected not only to be teachers in the usual sense, but to be active participants in the community in which they work and exercise educational leadership. These positions will be in the Indian Schools of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, in Kansas and Oklahoma, and in other Federal agencies in these states, and in Missouri and Arkansas.

The Civil Service Commission invites qualified persons to file at once. For full details as to examination requirements, where and by when to file, and application forms, consult the civil service secretary at the post office in Maryville.

Staff Sgt. Blair Is Stationed in Omaha

Air Force Staff Sergeant E. L. Blair, who attended school here during 1948, has recently returned from Guam and is now stationed in Omaha, Nebraska.

While on Guam Sgt. Blair held the position of Station Director and Program Director for the Anderson Base Broadcasting System, which was on the air 18 hours a day. He also directed a hill-billy variety show with a cast of 15 characters, as well as a band and a chorus of men and women.

When he is released from the Air Force Sgt. Blair may return to the campus, since he hopes to enter television work professionally.

Program of Physical Education Is Altered

With the start of the Fall Quarter, a new physical education program for freshmen women was adopted. This course carries through three quarters, with one hour of credit being earned each quarter.

In this program, a few weeks are spent on each sport offered on this campus, excluding swimming. When the course is over, the girl will be able to pick the sport she likes best and take a full quarter of it.

Starting with soccer, they have now had kickball, round dancing, basketball and stunts and tumbling.

QUESTION: How many countries have offered some form of assistance in Korea?

ANSWER: Secretary-General Trygve Lie has reported that, as of January 15, forty-two UN members and four non-UN members have offered assistance to the United Nations effort in Korea. Of the 27 countries which have offered military assistance, 17 nations now have military units in action. Offers of emergency relief for Korean civilians have been made by 38 countries, among which the United States has contributed the largest sum, $168,140,631, as of last November 24. Thailand's gift of 40,000 metric tons of rice, valued at $4,368,000, was the second largest national donation.

QUESTION: Is there any chance that the countries awaiting admission to the United Nations will be admitted during the Assembly now meeting in Paris?

ANSWER: A resolution has been passed by the Political Committee of the UN whereby fourteen countries seeking membership in the UN would be admitted simultaneously. However, the vote was carried by a small majority and the resolution must go before the General Assembly where it must receive a two-thirds majority before it is binding. The fourteen countries are: Albania, Austria, Bulgaria, Ceylon, Finland, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Jordan, Libya, Nepal, Outer Mongolia, Portugal and Rumania.

New Librarian in High School Is Wilma Wade

Horace Mann library is a real asset to the students of Horace Mann school as well as to the College students.

Miss Wilma Wade, the new librarian, is from Republic and was formerly librarian in Wyandotte High School in Kansas City, Kansas.

The library has a handy, well-ordered filing cabinet to assist students in reference work. A large number of books, newspapers, and magazines are provided, and complete sets of "News of the Week" maps are also supplied.

Miss Wade is endeavoring to teach all students to use the library for reference, for study, and for relaxation.

Writers' Club Features March of Dimes Poems

Poems on the March of Dimes, and discussion and criticism of manuscripts, featured the first after Christmas meeting of Writers' Club, Monday, January 28, at Miss Mattie Dykes' apartment. Refreshments of tea and cookies were served.

It was announced at the meeting that Virginia Coe Hamman, a club member, had received payment for a feature story which appeared in the Kansas City Star last October.

Two Girls Are Granted Music Club Membership

Meredith Nystrom and Mary Lu Valk, piano students, passed auditions recently for admittance to the Student Fortnightly Music club of St. Joseph. Both girls received "A" ratings.

They are students of Miss Ruth Miller, music instructor in the College, and studied under Mrs. Donald Sandford this last summer.

Meredith is a freshman at the Horace Mann high school, and Mary Lu is a freshman at the College.

Miss Jutten Is Nominated

Miss Jessie Jutten has been nominated by the Northwest Missouri State College chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha for the Wilma Wilson Sharp award. This is a national Alpha award which is given to an alumna who has distinguished herself through qualities of leadership or by rendering outstanding service or achievement in certain fields.

Reviews "Candles for Therese"

Miss Estella Bowman, of the College English faculty, has written a review of a post-war novel, "Candles for Therese," by I. A. L. Wylie. This review was featured in a recent issue of "A. A. U. W. News and Views," the bulletin of the Maryville Branch of A. A. U. W.

Treva Thompson Takes Office

Treva J. Thompson was installed as sergeant at arms at a recent meeting of Alpha Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon. She was selected to replace Beverly Harvey who has gone inactive.

Delta Sigmas Like Work Day

Actives and pledges of Alpha Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon held a work day on January 26. House cleaning, car washing, baby sitting, and other miscellaneous tasks netted a considerable amount for the treasury.

New quarters were provided for the staff of the Northwest Missourian in Room 215. Formerly known as the old bookstore and the book-binding room, it has been redecorated and changed and in the future will be known as the Northwest Missourian Staff Room.

President Lamkin announced that beginning on the following Monday and continuing through the rest of the quarter, College classes would begin at 9 o'clock in the morning instead of 8 o'clock.

Dr. H. G. Dildine presided at the assembly featuring Dr. Charles Wesley Cannon of Park College.

The Bearcats dropped into fourth place tie with Springfield in the M. I. A. A. conference as they lost to Springfield 28-38.

Handbook Shows Many Teachers Are Needed

According to the Occupational Outlook Handbook, 1951 revised edition, published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, more than 75,000 new elementary school teachers were needed for the 1950-51 school year, while 35,000 persons qualified for regular elementary teaching certificates in June, 1950.

Other occupations which now have an increased demand for workers, either through natural shortages or through the stepped-up mobilization program, are engineering, scientific research, television technology, nursing, dietetics, physical and occupational therapy, social work, library work, agricultural work, and accounting.

Lawyers, radio operators, radio announcers, newspaper reporters, and photographers have been in oversupply for a few years and will probably continue to be for several more.

These are only a few of the facts presented in the Handbook. Information needed in career planning for more than 400 occupations and an interest finder are included. Copies of the book may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C.

Captain John K. Garrett, now in Seoul, was pictured in Life Magazine. He just happened to be in the curio shop pictured, and he supposed that the photographer was just another curio shopper.

Mrs. Garrett is in Maryville and is secretary to Mr. H. R. Dieterich, Horace Mann principal, while her husband is away.

Elaine Hunt and the Air Force trio were featured at the Tivoli Theater before the first show Sunday night.

Miss Taul Vacations Along Lake Michigan

Miss Rachael Taul, an instructor, and a friend of hers vacationed in Wisconsin and Michigan. They drove around the western side of Lake Michigan to the upper peninsula, where they spent a few days with the Donald N. Valk family, and then continued down the east side of the lake to Chicago.

Of their visit to Mackinaw Island enroute, Miss Taul said, "I discovered that among other things, I was not as good on a bicycle as I once was."

Weddings

Royston-Graham
Miss Lola Nadine Royston and Mr. Justin Lair Graham were joined in matrimony on November 22, at 2 p. m., in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Royston, Jameson. The groom is the son of Mrs. Avis E. Graham, of the College's education faculty.

The bride has attended college here and is now teaching at Rockport. Mr. Graham is a graduate of the College and is teaching in the Atchison, Kansas, school system.

Reed-Elam

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reed, Stanberry, announce the marriage of their daughter, Dolores Jean, to William E. Elam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Elam, Maryville, on Wednesday, October 31.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Elam are graduates of the College.

Renwick-Dunlap
In a double ring ceremony, December 30, at the Danforth Chapel in Lawrence, Kansas, Miss Jean Renwick of Kansas City, Kansas, became the bride of John Carl Dunlap of Kansas City, Missouri.

The bride was graduated from the University of Kansas. Mr. Dunlap was graduated from Northwest Missouri State College in 1941. The couple will make their home at 4707 Grand, Kansas City, Missouri.

Miss Carolyn Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turner, Hopkins, and Pvt. Herbert Treese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Crystal Treese, Pickering, were married June 23 at the Memorial Methodist Church in Hopkins.

Mrs. Treese attended the College last year and was a member of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority.

Price Visits Campus

John Milton Price, former co-editor of the Northwest Missourian, was a campus visitor Thursday. He will receive his degree in English from the University of Missouri this spring.

Coaches Demonstrate a Foul in Pre-Game Chalk Talk

Starting fives of the Sigma Tau Bums and the Phi Sig Crums take careful notes as they are explained the rare fundamentals of fouling a player. In any sense, the players are told, the game between the two teams tonight in the main gymnasium is going to be a "foul" affair. The starting fives must play the entire first quarter. Top row, left to right, are Rich Windburn, Frank Meyers, George Anderson, Harry Yung-schlager, Burl Walters, and Bill Slaughter. Bottom row are Phil Larkin, Morlyn Barrett, Len Gereken, and Allen Spies. The "demonstrators" are Bud Kysar and Bill Gram.

Two Fraternity Teams, Crums and Bums, Battle Tonight in Basketball's Most Unusual Contest

"We'll Be Ready," Asserts Bum Coach

"We'll be ready for 'em," stated Bud Kysar, Sig Tau Bum coach, in regard to the game tonight. "I've been putting the boys through rough practice drills, and I believe we'll give those Crums a rugged battle."

Coach Kysar, showing complete satisfaction at the successful development of his Bum team, declared definitely: "We'll beat 'em! Three of my starting five each hit a basket in our four-hour drill last night. We're sharp."

Arduous practice drills have molded the players into physical fitness. Coach Kysar said he expects his starting five to complete the first quarter with no fewer than twenty-one time-outs.

"But these Bums are sharp," Coach Kysar says; "just watch 'em work against those Crums tonight."

Jerry Sheil Emcees Annual Ag Club Dance

Milking a cow, calling hogs, calling chickens, and carrying on a telephone conversation comprised the competitive events of the evening as the Ag Club members held their annual barn warming.

Jerry "Spook" Sheil was a howling success as the master of ceremonies. After the competitive events Mrs. William Slaughter was elected and crowned queen of the barn warming.

Games and round and square dancing ended the evening's entertainment.

A card was received from Jim Montague, a former Ag Club member who is teaching agriculture at Jamesport.

Members of the club now turn their efforts to the major event of the year, the father and son banquet. Arrangements are being made for the speaker, the date, and time for the banquet.

Kappa Phi Will Send Delegates to Meeting

Members of Kappa Omicron Phi met in the Home Economics Lounge, January 21.

Eleanor Williamson, chairman of the convective committee projects, presented a report to the group. Chairmen of the various projects are Rosetta Reed, Louise Tobin, Barbara Hudson.

Luella Steinhilber is in charge of the February social function which will be a party. Other pledges will serve on her committee.

Alpha chapter will send representatives to the regional meeting to be held Saturday, March 15, at Charleston, Illinois. These representatives will have charge of the discussion on money making projects.

ACEI Hears Dr. Miller Speak at Horace Mann

Dr. Leon Miller, chairman of the department of education, spoke to the Association for Childhood Education on January 28, in the Horace Mann Kindergarten. His theme was "What Kind of Teacher I Would Like To Be and Why." A discussion by the group followed his speech.

A brief business meeting preceded the program. The next meeting will be a Valentine party on February 12, with Miss Chloe Millikan, sponsor, as hostess.

At the close of the business meeting, formal initiation was held for the following: Pat Price, Dixie Newman, Donna Walker, Jean Anderson, Lucille Hunzinger, Jane Dyer, Marjorie Nelson, and Irene Cooper.

Barring more than ten injuries on each team the Sigma Tau Bums are scheduled to complete a game with the Phi Sig Crums tonight in one of the most unusual basketball contests ever displayed on this campus.

Ten selected men from each fraternity will battle one another in this fray tonight at the main gymnasium at 8:30.

Inability Determines Lineups
Unusual in this contest is the fact that these players are chosen according to their inability to play basketball. Few in either lineup have ever bounced a basketball on a court.

Pompous introductions will precede the opening toss. At the precise moment when intensification has attained its greatest limits each team will trot onto the floor to be greeted by their supporters with tumultuous approval.

Although there will be nothing like the Globetrotter warmups, the starting fives will release a few shots. Each fraternity will have a cheerleader to express organized support throughout the game.

Everyone Is Invited
The fraternities place their interfraternity athletic reputations on the prowess of these non-experienced cagers. Everyone is invited to see the downfall of one of these teams.

Bill Davis, a Sig Tau, hatched up the idea on one of his long walks home from his girl's place. Ideas formed into words of action and within a few days each fraternity was selecting an opposing team, using careful scrutiny to pick the ten poorest players possible.

Inexperienced coaches have been working for several days with their respective teams in an effort to mold them into presentable form.

Will Fight to Bitter End
Whether the offensive style is run and shoot, dribble and be fouled, or stall the ball, players of each team have expressed that they welcome the opportunity to participate in a contest such as this and that they will fight to the bitter end to uphold the proud banner of their fraternity.

The contest was originated to create humorous, interesting rivalry between the two fraternities. Any thought which intimates laughter at rather than laughter with the participants belongs outside the intention of the game.

The starting fives are as follows:

Phi Sig Crums
Bill Slaughter 10
Bill Hunter 20
Len Gereken 30
Burl Walter 40
Harry Yung-schlager 50

Sig Tau Bums
Phil Larkin 11
Rich Winburn 22
Morlyn Barrett 33
George Anderson 44
Frank Meyers 55

Drama Club Will See Play in Kansas City

Several members of the College Dramatics Club plan to attend the Sidney Kingsley play, "Darkness at Noon," tonight at the Orpheum Theatre in Kansas City.

Club members planning to make the trip are Ray Nixon, Roberta Cronkhite, Betty Reeves, Harley Hackett, Gilbert Rethemeyer, Lester Rethemeyer, Melva Helts, Thelma Buckley, Joan Cartwright, Martha Judah, Don Smith, Rika Swering, Lynn Adams, Burl Walter, and Mr. Biffie Moore, sponsor.

"Crums Are Up For Game," Says Coach

"Slow methodical Iba type of ball seems best suited for the material at hand," states Coach Bill Gram concerning the Phi Sig Crum team in an exclusive interview.

For several days now the Crums have been dunking them in pre-game warm-ups at the Buchanan Street gymnasium.

Coach Gram is said to be relying upon dynamic Harry Yung-schlager as the sparkplug of the Crum five. He realizes the potency of the Bum five but believes in the long run the Crums will come through with a win.

"My boys are going to be up for this game. We'll win by at least fifteen points if that many are scored," reflects Coach Gram.

Phi Sigmas Dance In Western Style

In honor of its present pledge class of twenty-four men, the Phi Sigs held their second pledge dance this year, January 19, at the chapter room.

The dance was strictly a six-gun affair with cap guns, water pistols, levis, plaid shirts, and bandannas standard equipment for all.

The chapter room was decorated in a western theme using wagon wheels, horse rollers, saddles, murals depicting western life, and the hide of a timber wolf of the four legged variety.

In charge of the "Stomp" was F. D. Patterson. Heading the committees under "Sarge's" supervision were Jerry White, music procurement and operation; Bill "Senior" Baker and "Whitney" Hubbell, entertainment for the intermission.

Bob Crockett was in charge of laying in supplies for the chuck wagon. Jerry Sheil, Bill Ogden and Whitney Hubbell rounded up the decorations. Jerry White and Ken Benham were in charge of the pot-lifting detail.

During the course of the evening several rounds of square dancing were stumbled through by the Phi Sigs and their guests. Refreshments of doughnuts and cokes were served to the weary cowhands.

Whitney Hubbell "emceed" the program, inserting some weird tales and songs into his talk. Bill Baker led the group in singing some old songs. Chaperones for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garrett.

Tri Sigma Pledges Are Kept Busy by Actives

Both Tri Sigma actives and pledges enjoyed a coke party in the chapter room January 23. The actives were entertained with songs which were written and sung by the pledges.

Informal pledge initiation started with the pledges wearing their white pinafores. Last week the pledges were busy getting balloons signed.

February 23 is the date set by the pledges for the "Soc Hop" which will be held in honor of the actives.

Tri Sigs Drop Alphas In First Hoop Clash

Playing their first game together, the Alpha Sig "Cuties" lost to the Tri Sigs 23 to 22 in the Girls' gym Monday evening.

The Tri Sigs played a fine first half and were ahead 12 to 3 as the whistle ended the time.

Carolyn Winclinger, freshman from Dexter, Iowa, was top point marker for the Tri Sig sextette, with 11 points. Janie Aitken, freshmen from Randolph, Iowa, had 9 points to top the Alpha Sig "Cuties."

Long-Awaited Evening Ends Pledgeship for Twenty-Four

Twenty-four men will complete their period of Phi Sigma pledgeship in the near future.

Hell night, the traditional time of inflicting on the pledges extra duties, will be controlled from the chapter room in downtown Maryville. This night will not be soon forgotten by the recipients of the planned misery.

Men completing their pledgeship period are as follows: Fred Hannan, Maikland; Don Mills, Redfield, Ia.; Bob Douglas, Albany; Dwayne Cox, Osborn; Hershel Nelson, Skidmore; Al Bolt, St. Joseph; Bill Hunter, Grant City; Johnny Barrett, Westboro; and Henry Short, Excelsior Springs; Frank Bayless, Coin, Ia.; Mons Roll, Stanton, Ia.; Dean Balsover, Springerton, Ill.; Zane Dodge, Albany; Burl Walter, Shenandoah, Ia.; and Larry Huddle, Parksville. Mike Shell, Maloy, Ia.; Edwin Haskill, Emerson, Ia.; Stanley Butt, Westboro; Eddie Barnes, Albany; Jim Boyd, Cainsville; Lloyd Roberts, Savannah; Bill Slaughter, Maryville; Bob Laughlin, Guilford; and Bruce Thompson, Quitman.

Following Hell Night, the Phi Sigs will attend church in a group at one of the local churches in Maryville.

Formal initiation for the candidates to Nu chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon will be held the following Wednesday night at the chapter room.

New Books

Wherever his interest may lie, the student can always find a book to please him in the College library. Several different types of subject matter are included among the newest arrivals.

"The Ape in Our House" by Cathy Hayes is the account of the rearing of a young chimpanzee by a research psychologist and his wife.

Harnett T. Kane, in "Gentlemen, Swords, and Pistols," has compiled a history of duelling in the 1880's.

"Born of These Years" by Perry Burgess, author of "Who Walk Alone," is the story of the author's crusade against leprosy.

"A Few Buttons Missing" by James T. Fisher is subtitled "The Casebook of a Psychiatrist."

Ross S. Carter's "Those Devils in Baggy Pants" is a first-hand account of the 82nd Airborne Division.

"The General and the President" by Richard H. Revere and Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr. is an account of the Truman-McArthur disagreement.

Irwin T. Sanders has compiled a handbook for civic-minded men and women. "Making Good Communities Better."

William O. Douglas's new book "Strange Hands and Friendly People" is his account of his travel and the people in Greece and the Near East.

"Closing the Ring" by Winston Churchill is his fifth volume on the Second World War. Lloyd C. Douglas, author of numerous novels, has produced a volume of reminiscences, "Time to Remember."

Fiction includes: "Sing at My Wake" by Jo Sinclair, "The Captive Witch" by Dale Van Every, and "I and Claudie," a collection of stories, by Dillon Anderson. Volume two of Norman Feingold's "Scholarships, Fellowships, and Loans" will be of value to students who need help, either now or at the graduate level.

Air Force Entertain Newman Club Members

Members of the Newman Club were entertained Tuesday evening, January 29 from 7 to 9 o'clock in the Bearcats' Den Lounge by the Air Force men who have been attending their meetings.

There was also a short business meeting, and plans for a trip to Clyde to visit the Monastery and the Chapel in the future and for a dance Tuesday evening, February 5, in the Bearcats' Den Lounge were made.

Mafeli Daranyi Is Back From Holiday In Peru

Mafeli Daranyi, who made a plane trip to her home in Lima, Peru, for a three-week vacation during the holidays, is now back in Maryville.

Most of her three-week vacation was spent on the beach, since Lima is now having summer and the weather is very warm.

Mafeli says, "The people at home think the United States has done me much good. Also, I am very glad to be back in the United States."

Pi Omega Pi Has Taken Annual Business Trip

Members of Pi Omega Pi, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell, and Roger Dale, took their annual business trip, Friday, February 1.

The purpose of this trip is to give the members a chance to broaden their views on the business world.

The points of interest of this trip were the Federal Reserve Bank and the Board of Trade.

After spending the day in Kansas City, the group drove to Warrensburg to watch the Bearcat-Mule basketball game, thanks to Mr. Sterne, the chairman of the business department at Warrensburg, who secured seats for the group.

Paul and Byron Ross, Richard Gordon, Joe Thompson, Johnny Koffman, Gracie Beeks, Thelma Buckley, Leona Grever, Lillian Pease, Joyce Bailey, Maryle Tunks, Wilma Payne made the trip.

Four Sisters Major in Home Economics

Planned Recreation Is Added to I C Schedule

They aren't crazy! But they are happy. They are the members of the Independent Club contorting and maneuvering their torsos to the hilarious game of "My Uncle Brought Me a Doll from Paris," in the after-meeting recreation.

Planned recreation has been added to the activity schedule of the Independent Club. For the meeting of January 16, Donald I mean, Marilyn Litton, and Marilyn Brown composed the recreation committee. Also included on the program were the games, "Song Charade," and "Grable's Trick."

Highlight of the year's social activities will be a spring formal.

Philadelphia Is ACEI Study Conference Site

Published in January, 1952, the second bulletin of the Association for Childhood Education International is being sent with large boxes of permanent educational materials to other countries. The materials were selected and assembled at the request of the U. S. Department of State.

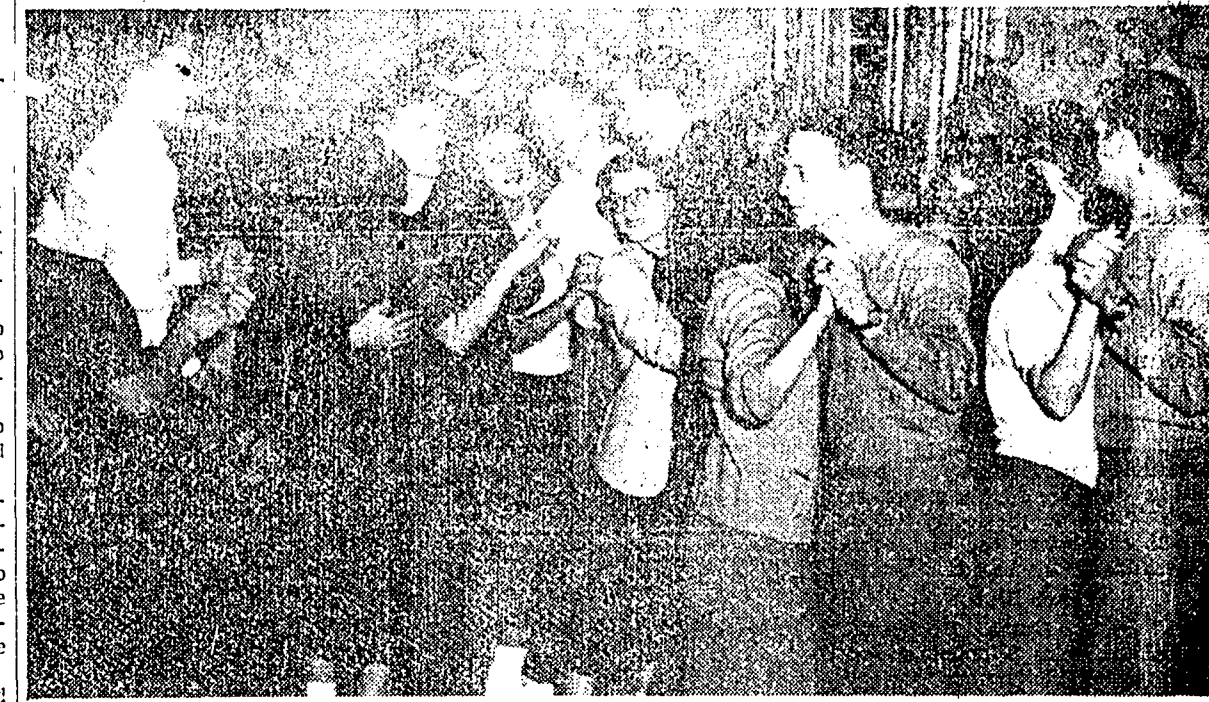

"Guiding Children in Freedom and Responsibility" is the theme for the study conference of the ACEI. The conference will be held April 14-18, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Non-members as well as members will be welcome.

Alphas Appoint Committees

Committees to plan the Alpha Sigma Alpha Sweetheart dance have been chosen. They are as follows: Carolyn Cannon, Jacky Donaldson, Barbara Beaver, Marilyn Pippitt; food, Joyce Bailey, Evelyn Hillman, Alice Arbuckle, Lila Bauer, Betty Nazarene; entertainment, Barbara Roush, Elvace Donaldson, Jane Aitken.

Alphas and Taus Dance and, Laugh in Fraternity Room

Phi Sig Pledges Honor the Actives

The Maryville Country Club was the setting for a dance given by the pledges of Phi Sigma Epsilon in reciprocation for the kind treatment received from the actives during their pledgeship.

Dressing in accord with the theme of an "Apache" dance the Phi Sigs wore blazer striped "T" shirts and dark trousers while the guests wore sweaters, too small, and skirts (too tight and short).

Decorations included a bar, tables with flickering candles, and dim lights.

Music for the affair was furnished by Wick.

Bob Douglas was chairman of the committee promoting the dance. Bill Slaughter was master of ceremonies for the program presented at intermission. Dwayne Cox, Burl Walters and Bruce Thompson furnished some "music" in the course of the program.

A timely reading entitled "Demon Rum" was read by Dean Balsover with a choral accompaniment by the pledges.

Refreshments consisted of sandwiches and some jungle juice brewed up by masterminds in the pledge class.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garrett and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Grube were enapones for the evening.

Taus Stage Informal Dance for Alpha Sigs

After the 29th of the Tau Sigma Alpha pledges, the Tau Sigma Alpha pledges will entertain the Alpha Sigs in an informal dance at the Tau Club. During the evening's fun several Alpha pledges received demonstrations of the use of the paddles which serranade the backsides of the current Tau pledge class.

Last Tuesday night Harold Job gave a star party for members of Sigma Tau Gamma in honor of several who are leaving for service. Taus thus honored were Charles Doran, Jim Doran, Bob Bagby, F. B. Houghton, and Richard Black.

Mrs. Gerald Cox, who was graduated in 1951, was president of the Residence Hall Council. She is now living in Baltimore, Maryland, where she is teaching home economics in the school system.

Terry Noah Receives Air Force Presentation

P. F. C. Terrence D. Noah, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Noah of Cainsville, was presented with "The American Spirit of Honor" medal on Thursday, January 24, at a parade in San Antonio, Texas.

Private Noah was chosen from a field of more than 6000 men to receive this medal which is given to the enlisted man in basic training who best demonstrates outstanding qualities of leadership, honor, initiative, loyalty, and high example to comrades-in-arms.

Private Noah, a graduate of the College, enlisted in the air force the first of December of last year and has been stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas, where he has received his basic training. Prior to his enlistment, he held the position of teacher and coach at Quitman High School.

Square Dance Will End Deltas' Pledge Period

With a hi-de-ho and a do-si-do, Delta Sigma pledges will entertain the actives and guests at a square dance on February 16. This party will climax all the rigors of pledge week and end pledgeship.

Under the guidance of their captain, Betty Curry, the pledges have been studying the manual and have elected the following officers for their pledge class: Frances Curry, president; Norma Jean McDaniels, vice-president; Maryle Tunks, secretary-treasurer.

Bearcats Attempt Revival in Two Home Contests

Ravens and Mules Will Invade Maryville to End Home Season

St. Benedict's, currently riding atop the Central Intercollegiate Conference standings with a 4 won, 1 lost record, invades Maryville Friday night for a non-league encounter with the Bearcats.

The Ravens, who have compiled a 12 won 2 lost season's record, come here with one of the outstanding small college teams in the area. Only Springfield and Washburn hold victories over the Aitchison quintet. Maryville was on the losing end of a 73-53 score when the two teams met earlier in the season.

Power Plus
Ben Peters, Dutch Brungardt, Bill Dollard, John Schmiedeler and Bill Samuels all lettermen, form the Benedict's starting line-up. Sophomores Joe Stueve, Hillard Allen and Freshman Massarand give the Ravens great reserve strength.

Monday night Maryville closes out their home season when they meet Warrensburg. The Mules still in the fight for conference honors inflicted a heavy loss on the 'Cats in their last meeting. Coach Carl Keth will rely on Big Jim Hoverder and Glenn Kammeyer to spoil local chances for a victory.

Need New Start
Coach Don Peterson's squad, winless in their last three starts will be shooting to break out of a terrible scoring slump. Since the Pittsburg game the Green and White basketballers have been having a rough time. Seniors Chuck Ramsey, John Yurchak, Kirby Lyle and George Nathan will perform before local fans for the last time.

Mardy Ingels Chosen First "M" Club Queen

Mardy Ingels, junior from Maryville, was chosen queen of the 1951-1952 "M" Club. The announcement was made at the coronation ceremony during the intermission of the letter club's first ball, Saturday, January 26.

Attendants to Queen Mardy Ingels were Sue McCoppin of Maryville and Joyce Bailey of Maryville. George Nathan, acting in behalf of President Bob Hemenway announced and crowned the first "M" Club Queen.

Mules Overrun Bearcats 68-44

Maryville's Defense Buckles at Accuracy

Coach Don Peterson's Maryville Bearcats fell behind in the first few minutes of play at Warrensburg last week end as the Mules ran up a clearcut 68-44 victory.

Employing a zone defense in order to stop the two big Mule pivot men, the Cats found the trio of Bill Greenstreet, Jack Mahaffie, and Biddle Freund too tough to handle. Freund connected for 16 points in the first half while Mahaffie, besides playing a brilliant floor game, chipped in 15 tallies. While the defense was particularly effective against the taller Mules, the small front liners hit an amazing percentage of their shots to boost Warrensburg into a commanding 41-20 half-time lead.

Chuck Ramsey was the only Maryville player to do any scoring. Ramsey connected for 10 points.

Intramural Teams Complete Double Round Robin Soon; Top Eight Play Interleague Tournament

Two Teams Are Dropped From "B" Division; New Program Stagers, Needs Active Rejuvenation

After three thrill packed weeks of competitive basketball, the men's intramural league will soon be drawing to a close. Keen competition in both the "A" and "B" divisions has found only the stronger teams outlasting.

When the round robin tournaments are completed, four finalist teams from each of the Blue and Red leagues will meet in a championship tournament.

In the championship tourney singles elimination will be used and one defeat will drop any team from the "A" and "B" final running.

Southwest Iowa Leading
Leading in the Blue division are Walt Stanton's Southwest Iowa "Cornpickers," who have piled up a record of eight games won and one defeat.

Other strong teams in the Blue league fighting for top honors are Group IV coached by Bill Coker; Group III coached by George Haws; and Group I coached by Roger Grunwald. These teams are picked to be among the four finalists for the trophy tourney later on in the season.

Red Division Short
Although the "B" or Red league is short two teams, the division is in full swing. The four teams who have shown outstanding ability in their games are Team V, Team IV, Team III, and Team II.

That about four teams are shaping into final championship play is the word that most coaches in the "B" division have to say. Generally the program has not been one of complete success. There has been some lack of management on the part of the directors and coaches, and recent comments indicate lack of respectful officiating.

It seems as if the new intramural

Mardy Receives Regal Tribute as First "M" Club Queen

To Build Field House Here College Asks Appropriation

Pres. J. W. Jones today made known his request for a state appropriation of $100,000 as a supplement to other federal and state grants providing for the enlargement of a proposed armory building to include a field house. The request was made after approval by the Board of Regents of Northwest Missouri State College.

The request was made in the form of letters to Senator John W. Noble, chairman of the committee on appropriations and Senator John Hoshor, representing this area in the state senate.

Asks for $100,000 More
A bill providing appropriations for the construction of eight National Guard armories in Missouri, is now before Congress. One of these units is to be located here. The armory proposed for Maryville is to be built at a cost of $132,000. The federal government would put up $100,000 to be matched with $32,000 from the state.

Dr. Jones asks the state legislature to include an additional $100,000 in the Omnibus Bill to enlarge the proposed building to include a field house for the College.

Dr. Jones requests that the appropriation be worded to insure consultation of the Board of Regents in the drafting of plans for the armory-field house. And, that no state money appropriated to the College be expended until the Regents give their approval on the plans and specifications of such a project.

Discussion Began in 1946
The president said the structure he has in mind would be large enough to serve both the National Guard's desires and the College's.

Three Students Escape Injury

Three students of Northwest Missouri State College, Maryville, Mo., escaped severe injury about noon Sunday when the car in which they were riding left highway 65, about six miles south of Sedalia, and was demolished.

They were Le Roy Potter, 18 years old, Imogene, Iowa, the driver, James H. Howland, 18, Shenandoah, Iowa, and Earl P. (Pat) Sprong, 19, Chillicothe. They were en route to Maryville after witnessing the Maryville-Springfield basketball game at Springfield Saturday night.

Potter told highway patrolmen his car skidded on slick pavement after it passed a truck. Investigators said the car went approximately 115 feet down the shoulder of the highway, jumped more than 15 feet across a culvert 12 feet deep, striking the embankment on the far side of the culvert and hurtling nearly 40 feet into the air, landing in a field.

Airmen Donate $465.15 to Fund

The largest single contribution to the March of Dimes fund here came from the Air Force squadron at Northwest Missouri State College Friday. In a one-day drive, under the chairmanship of Sgt. Herbert D. Smith, $465.15 was raised by voluntary contribution.

The contribution was presented to County Fund Chairman Sam Ingels Friday afternoon by Sgt. Smith and Lt. Thaddeus Wagner, commanding officer of the squadron. Officers and non-commissioned airmen stationed at the College total 309. The average amount donated per man is over the $1.50 mark.

Donations by groups are listed as follows: Group 28, $22.50; Group 29, $25; Group 30, $40; Group 31, $52.50; Group 32, $56.02; Group 33, $17.15; Group 34, $25; Group 35, $57; Group 36, $26.63; Group 37, $32.10; Group 38, $101; squadron staff, $11.22.

Bearcats Lose To Springfield

A deadly-accurate South-west Missouri State basketball team handed the local Bearcats a severe 84-48 lacing Saturday night at Springfield.

The Bears, behind the sharp-shooting Jim Murphy and "Fog" Hamilton, hit the first six shots they attempted and led 12 to 2 after five minutes had been consumed. At the end of the first stanza, Springfield held a commanding 23-12 advantage. Action in the second session was of the same variety and the league leaders led 46-24 at intermission.

Starting the third period, the Maryville defense fell completely apart as the Bears ran up 12 points in less than four minutes. Coach Bob Vanatta pulled his regulars off the floor at the end of the third period with Springfield leading 72-33.

Maryville, behind a ten-point burst by Dick Buckridge, outscored the Bears reserve, 15 to 12, in the last period.

Coach Don Peterson's crew hit only 27 per cent of their shots while Springfield had a torrid 44 per cent. Buckridge, with 14 points was the local top scorer. Murphy connected for 20 and Hamilton for 18 to lead the winning attack.

Bears Expected To Move Toward M. I. A. A. Crown

Three M. I. A. A. conference games are scheduled this week and in one of them the Springfield Bears are expected to move another step towards their second straight championship.

The Bears, who won their 11th straight victory and 6th in the M. I. A. A., by outclassing Maryville 84-48 last Saturday, will meet Rolla at Rolla Saturday.

Kirkville and Warrensburg, both nursing very slight titular hopes, will meet in a feature attraction at Kirkville Saturday.

The only other league game matches Kirkville and Cape Girardeau at Cape tonight.

In non-conference play Warrensburg will be at Central tonight and Maryville will be host to St. Benedict's Friday.

Little Jimmy Murphy, the league's leading scorer, hit 20 points for Springfield against Maryville.

Golden Gloves aspirants... really showing up well for Maryville... Walt Stanton, Duane Newman, and Kenny Stevens... did excellent jobs down in St. Joseph... Many radios were dialed to the fights the nights those boys fought... Kenny's victory in the first fight was quite a sensation... The announcer's comment in the third round... "Stevens looks tired"... created no surprise... Many who saw the fights caused much discern in morning classes... sleeping students absorb little.

Speculations are increasing as intramural tournament play draws near... members of the "B" Group are commanding little respect in the suggestive winners... Redmond's, Oellermann's and Dunlap's Group I seems to be sharp... but... Haws and Carey of Group II are managing a terrific ball club... Stanton's and Weed's first team in Group V appears to have the best record and will be seeded first if it maintains such a standing... Group IV, with Malone, Buckridge, and Kinman directing, appears to be in top form...

All in all... tournament competition will be keen... only the four best in each division will participate for top honors... the student body is encouraged to attend these games.

Meanwhile, the intramural league play is progressing fast and furiously... In one outstanding tussle Rex Plummer knocked the bottom out of the basket... he tossed in 57 points... knowing Rex we agree with you... but he did it... and in quite a spectacular fashion... too bad his team lost by forfeiture... eh what?

Captivating the limelight tonight is something different though... a "basketball" game between two fraternity teams... each team represents the poorest talent from the Phi Sigs and the Sig Taus... Basically the plan is to better interfraternity associations... at any event it is hoped that a new tradition will be earmarked tonight.

It seems that everybody competes in sports... but what about the girls competing in something like sewing... might be a better method of bringing the sororities together than positive contact on the basketball court... or even a cooking contest would be better... I'd offer my services as a judge for something like that.

Interesting comparison... May it be recorded in history that George Coulter is so far the only man to be a candidate for Ugly Man and for Tower King at the same time... it is the first time in the history of this school.

The American Council on Education... composed of ten college presidents... a special committee on athletic policy... proposed a ban on all postseason bowl games... also a rule barring freshmen from varsity teams... and the elimination of athletic scholarships.

Southeastern Conference athletic officials reacted in exemplary manner... they voted unanimously to tell the ten college presidents to stick to their educational knitting.

In this corner the opinion is the same... let the men who know their line iron out difficulties...

WAA Round Robin Basketball Tournament Is Led by Deltas

Two rounds of the WAA basketball round-robin tournament have been completed with the Delta Sigs leading the standings.

The first games were played January 23. The Delta Sigs defeated the Tri Sigs 32-24 and the Bear Kittens were victorious over the Alpha Sig Pledgets 15-10. In the second round the Delta Sigs beat the Alpha Sig Pledgets 40-19, and the Tri Sigs defeated the Alpha Sig Cuties 23-22.

Dorothy Stanton captains the Delta Sigs. Jo Ann Outler, Jean Lienemann, Norma Jean McDaniell, Jane Glenn, Virginia Buzzard, Wanda Mantzy, and Carolyn Butt complete the team.

The Alpha Sig Pledgets are Geraldine Struck, Pat Blair, Barbara Beaver, Evelyn Hillman, Elva Lee Donaldson, Helen Zimmerman, Sue Cole, Sue Bebout, Mary Jane Espey, and Jean Williams.

Phyllis Standlee and Sue McCoppin are co-captains of the Tri Sig team, with Marlene Shippers, Joan Eitzen, Judy Eitzen, Dixie Newman, Dixie Morehouse, Jean Anderson, Elizabeth Cushman, Carl of Tudder, and Louise Tobin completing the team.

Three more games are to be played, February 18. The schedule of the games is as follows: at 4 p.m., the Delta Sigs will play the Alpha Sig Cuties; 7 p.m., Tri Sigs vs Alpha Sig Pledgets; 7:45 p.m., Bear Kittens vs Alpha Sig Cuties.
